We are delighted and proud to present the creations of our herbal laboratory – in the same spirit as one of our farming ancestors might once have offered you the finest fruit from his garden.

We have always drawn inspiration from all that nature has to offer. Many of our raw materials are plant-derived: oils, butters, distilled floral and herbal waters, and plant juices, all obtained with the care and patience of traditional craftsmanship. They arrive at L'Erbolario from every corner of the world, their scents permeating our people, our workplaces and even the surrounding streets. We then incorporate them generously into our bottles, boxes and jars for everyone who, like us, believes in the remarkable virtues of medicinal plants — and knows that while natural beauty may be a matter of luck (or, rather, genetics), enhancing it is an art to be cultivated with patience, knowledge and confidence.

Of course, it is no longer practical to prepare cosmetics from freshly crushed fruit or hand-gathered herbs. Nor should we overlook the value of modern extraction techniques, which allow us to obtain plant-derived ingredients selected for their content of active compounds, such as exgtensins and phytosomes.

We believe that many people share our philosophy that the wisdom of the past and the achievements of modern science are indispensable partners.

A meeting point between traditional phytocosmetics and modern cosmetic science.

Rooted in our family history and local heritage, we have always been captivated by the extraordinary virtues of plants and committed to exploring their still untapped potential, while embracing the invaluable support of modern science and technology. All our phytocosmetics are the fruit of a passion for herbalism, built on over almost fifty years of manufacturing expertise and, we like to think, a long track record of success. They are often suggested, tested, critiqued and improved with the help of customers at our herbalist shops in Lodi. This direct relationship is an invaluable source of inspiration and feedback.

Our Research & Development Laboratory oversees the quality of every L'Erbolario cosmetic product. Each product is manufactured in accordance with the strictest hygiene standards and using state-of-the-art production facilities.

Finally, skin compatibility is verified through clinical testing conducted in collaboration with the University of Pavia, one of Italy's oldest and most prestigious universities.

Delicate and fragile skins which flake easily often suffer from unsightly, widespread redness.

While it usually appears on the cheeks, it can also sometimes spread to the sides of the nostrils or larger areas of the face.

These skin types are sensitive to all external agents and face different adversities throughout the year: cold, smog and excessively dry air in offices and apartments during the winter; sun, wind, salt and chlorine in swimming-pools in the summer; continually changing temperatures and humidity levels during spring and autumn. It is therefore necessary to avail of safe, specifically formulated products that provide excellent protection and nourishment for the skin.

ALGADETOX

Nowadays, the epidermis – which is a real protective barrier – is constantly exposed to UV rays and other atmospheric pollutants, such as smog (a combination of the words 'smoke' and 'fog'). And precisely with the aim of defending and purifying, we created the special recipes of the Alga detox line, products that draw all their anti-radical and protective virtues from algae and micro-algae.

The Activator is very easy to use: just take 2 drops of product with the special dropper and mix them with one of the Alga detox Face Creams or your Cream of choice, then tap on face, neck and neckline. The Alga detox Beauty Activator has been formulated to be used solely in conjunction with a face cream to boost its effect, not to be used alone.

HYALURONIC ACID OR THE IMPORTANCE OF MOISTURISING

Full of water, thanks to high percentages of Hyaluronic Acid, young skin is firm, elastic and fresh. As time passes, to our dismay, the skin's natural Hyaluronic Acid content decreases, leading to a serious drop in skin moisture. To prevent the risk of premature wrinkles and simultaneously minimise the signs of time as much as possible, we need to ensure that our skin gets all the water it needs and quench its thirst every day!

THE KEY WORD IS 'MOISTURISE'

We have said it before: anyone wishing to make sure their skin stays fresh and radiant needs to keep one thought in mind: moisturise, moisturise, moisturise!

Like an apple that shrivels when it loses water, skin that lacks moisture will also age before its time, since lack of moisture "empties" the tissues and means that facial movements and expressions cause wrinkles more easily.

On the contrary, well-moisturised and fresh, soft skin is more "plastic" and supple, retaining longer-lasting compactness and firmness of young skin. It is therefore crucial to find an efficient beauty strategy that moisturises and restores the skin, providing an effective anti-ageing and protective action on the skin of the face, neck and low neckline.

MARVELLOUS HYALURONIC ACID

The polysaccharide of youth, cellular cement, the guardian of skin freshness, firmness and density, Hyaluronic Acid has the outstanding capacity of retaining up to one thousand times more water than its weight. This is why, in our bodies, it regulates the degree of moisture and plasticity of our tissues. Hyaluronic Acid, a leading-edge cosmetic ingredient which immediately took its place at the forefront of age control active substances, possesses a wide range of amazing properties. As an unflagging hydrophilic molecule, it is capable of:

- constantly ensuring that your skin receives the right amount of moisture;

- limiting evaporation, which tends to rob skin of moisture and expose it to the risk of dryness and subsequently undesirable wrinkles and lines;

- smoothing and firming your skin;
- assisting the physiological production of Collagen I, the protein responsible for keeping skin tissues compact and firm.

MULTI-ACTIVE ANTIAGE STRATEGY

The Hyaluronic Acid obtained by L'Erborario using an advanced biotechnological process is at the centre of its innovative and high-performance Multi-Active Anti-Ageing treatment: 14 phytocosmetics featuring an appealing and fresh consistency, formulated to ensure that face and body are protected against the passing of time and the signs it unrelentingly leaves. Featuring highly select active ingredients such as Alpine Rhododendron stem cells and Hibiscus Oil, Hyaluronic Acid is contained here in three different molecular weights, and is therefore three times more active and effective.

THREE MOLECULAR WEIGHTS OPERATING ON THREE DIFFERENT SKIN LEVELS

Hyaluronic Acid with a high molecular weight means that it stays on the skin's surface forming an invisible protective film and "preventing" the water molecules from being lost, limiting any evaporation which tends to deprive the skin of moisture and expose it to the risk of dryness and premature ageing. Hyaluronic Acid with a medium molecular weight, on the other hand, channels moisture past the skin barrier, providing the nourishment required to protect the skin's elasticity and fine texture over time. Lastly, Hyaluronic Acid with a low molecular weight pushes even deeper into the skin and stimulates the physiological production of Collagen, a protein that protects the compactness and "suppleness" of skin tissues. Intensely moisturised, toned and smoothed, your face and body skin is fresher and more radiant with every application, gradually smoothing out the signs of time, from long-standing wrinkles to recent, small lines, from expression lines to the beginning of unsightly sagging.

Two-phase Make-up Remover [002.469]

With low, medium and high molecular weight Hyaluronic Acid Age-control treatment for eyes and lips

A make-up remover formulated to cleanse and remove traces of make-up, but also provide a valuable age-control action. Its formula contains a leading component, commonly used as the base ingredient of treatment products: low, medium and high molecular weight Hyaluronic Acid.

In its water phase it leaves a protective film on the skin, it regulates the level of moisture promoting the physiological production of Collagen. Hibiscus and Olive oils are the protagonists of the oil phase, with their nourishing and sebum-replenishing proper ties. After cleansing, your skin will appear visibly toned and well defended against the risk of undesirable sagging.

Ophthalmologically tested.
Perfume-free.

Cleansing Mousse [002.470]

With low, medium and high molecular weight Hyaluronic Acid and Amino Acids of Wheat Age-control treatment for the Face

The main ingredient of this anti-age recipe has a very high phytochemical value, and is traditionally only contained in excellent treatment products: Hyaluronic Acid, with three different molecular weights.

Specifically, this active ingredient creates a protective film on the skin, limiting the external loss of humidity, and contributes to promoting the physiological production of Collagen. Wheat protein completes the action, providing the Mousse with delicate cleansing properties.

Rebalancing Beauty Lotion for the Face [006.978]

With low, medium and high molecular weight Hyaluronic Acid with extract of Burdock and Pumpkin, and Distilled Witch Hazel Water

Skin toning treatment for Combination and Oily Skin

An innovative Beauty Lotion that offers even blemished skin prone to shine the pleasant sensation of freshness and purity combined with moisturisation and suppleness. The moisturising action of Hyaluronic Acid is combined with the skin-purifying and astringent property of Burdock and Distilled Witch Hazel Water. By providing a fine and impalpable layer over the skin, this precious aqueous solution helps strengthen the natural barrier against external aggression and rediscover the beauty of naturally smooth and visibly purified skin.

4 Single-use expandable cotton masks included

Softening Beauty Lotion for the Face [006.983]

Your skin leaves behind the feeling of dehydration and rediscovers the appeal of renewed elasticity, that invites caresses. With this dance of ingredients, your skin will rediscover its leading role of beauty which shows through in all of its renewed radiance.

4 Single-use expandable cotton masks included

Triple Action Face Mask [012.001]

With low, medium and high molecular weight Hyaluronic Acid and extract of Snow Algae

A plant with an exceptional ability to adapt, Snow Algae grows on glaciers at a very high altitude, where it survives by changing its composition as external conditions change. In combination with Hyaluronic Acid, an unrivalled ally for hydration, the extract of Snow Algae contained in this extraordinary Face Mask works to leave the skin looking and feeling incredibly fresh, moisturised and radiant. Your skin is instantly more toned, smoother, firmer and plumper, as if Snow Algae had revealed the secret to its self-regeneration.

Triple Action Face Fluid [021.697]

With low, medium and high molecular weight Hyaluronic Acid Multi-active age-control treatment

Hyaluronic Acid is the active ingredient at the centre of the formula for this Multi-active anti-age treatment. In the refreshing consistency of this Fluid, it is three times more active: the low, medium and high molecular weights allow this unflagging molecule to intervene at different levels of the skin, providing huge quantities of water and simultaneously limiting the outwards loss of moisture, which otherwise tends to deprive the skin of water and expose it to the risk of dryness, wrinkles and sagging. The unique property of low molecular weight Hyaluronic Acid is that it penetrates deep into the skin, promoting the physiological production of Collagen, the protein which is essential for maintaining the firmness and suppleness of young skin.

Perfume-free.

Triple Action Eye Contour Cream [011.704]

Triple Action Face Cream [011.698]

With low, medium and high molecular weight Hyaluronic Acid and Alpine Rhododendron stem Cells

Age-control treatment for normal and dry skin

Hyaluronic Acid possesses the extraordinary capacity to hold large quantities of water within its structure, thereby becoming an essential cosmetic ingredient of anti-age treatments as it serves to keep skin fresh and maintain a fine texture. The formula of this extremely appealing, complete cream contains Hyaluronic Acid with three different molecular weights and is therefore three times more active. Remaining on the skin surface as an invisible protective film and “stopping” water loss, it works to provide your skin with all the moisture it needs to stay supple and firm, also assisting the physiological production of Collagen. Combined with Alpine Rhododendron stem cells, which help skin tolerate environmental stress and climatic aggression, Hyaluronic Acid will leave your face looking more radiant and beautiful every single day.

Triple Action Face Cream [011.699]

With low, medium and high molecular weight Hyaluronic Acid and Alpine Rhododendron stem Cells

Age-control treatment for combination skin

An anti-age treatment for combination and oily skin, which provides considerable amounts of water and elasticising, compacting and normalising substances with every application. With three molecular weights, Hyaluronic Acid offers this refreshing and extremely appealing formula, performing a crucial triple action: moisturising and toning, ensuring that your skin always gets enough water; smoothing and minimising the signs of time, limiting evaporation which deprives skin of moisture and exposes it to the risk of unsightly wrinkles, expression lines and creases; making skin more compact and firm, assisting the physiological production of Collagen, the protein of “youth” which protects the density and freshness of skin tissues. The final touch is provided by two innovative ingredients: Alpine Rhododendron stem cells, which “teach” your skin to tolerate environmental stress, and Epilobium extract, which is an excellent normalising and skin-purifying ingredient which helps clear combination skin of impurities and shine.

SLOW DOWN TIME

The passing months, seasons and years inevitably leave a mark on our souls and, alas, on our faces as well. These marks, however, can be slight traces or deep furrows. But it doesn't have to be that way! You can fight skin ageing processes, ward off the worst and even repair any small disasters that have already made their mark.

In order to help you do everything within your power, L'Erbolario has developed a specific line, we might even say revolutionary, where the benefits of the present and the precious wisdom of tradition are combined synergetically.

Make-up Remover with Extensin and meristematic Extract

[002.005]

To gently remove make-up from eyes, face and lips

An extremely rich emulsion which, both gently and effectively, removes make-up from the various parts of the face, respecting even the most delicate and vulnerable areas, such as eyes and lips, which it even helps to protect.

Two precious natural-derived ingredients (Extensin and Meristematic extract) combined with highly pure ingredients, make it possible to fight against external agents which are irritating and damaging to the structure and youthfulness of the skin, starting with your basic cleansing routine.

Nourishing Cream for the Face

[011.009]

with Avocado Oil and Butter, Vitamin E, Sunflower Sprouts

This cream, which is not oily and has a very fine texture that is a pleasure to apply, is basically actual food for your skin.

Among other active ingredients, it contains high percentages of Avocado Oil, Vitamin E and Vitamin B5. The first ingredient is one of the most effective skin protectors and softeners. Resembling a natural lipid, it softens the skin, performing the extremely useful action of protecting it and retaining water.

This is exactly what skin that is no longer very young, or which is going through particularly tiring periods, requires during night-time rest.

The already rich combination of ingredients of this cream also contains vitamin E, also known as the vitamin of youth, which provides an anti-oxidising action par excellence, meaning that it fights free radicals.

Multi-active Serum

[021.004] [021.010]

*Firming Face Fluid
With immediate effect*

A concentrated serum with immediate and accumulative action.

It offers all of the benefits of powerful functional elements of plant origin which are immediately available to the skin thanks to the action of phospholipid liposomes, improving the texture, complexion and compactness of your skin: the firming effect is noticeable immediately after application, providing an instant cosmetic face-lift which defines the contour of your face and smooths out your features.

It is therefore the ideal product that can be applied before any other treatment, including the eye contour area, for the application of full make-up or for special occasions.

It then, gradually, nourishes your skin, reduces and helps prevent wrinkles.

Suitable for all skin types, the Anti-ageing Serum has many purposes:

- 1) With its immediate firming effect on facial features, it is the ideal "beauty rescue" for particularly critical moments: just a few applications provide smooth, splendid and toned skin, and set makeup offering a dazzling effect.
- 2) When applied for long cycles (20 days) repeated throughout the year, it is an effective preventive age-control treatment.
- 3) Continual use restores and saves skin that is particularly tired and worn out, preserving elasticity and smoothing out features.

Youth Face Mask [012.189]

with Macadamia Oil & meristematic Extract

The very fine cream of this Mask is bursting with plant active ingredients and vitamin complexes that work together to prevent skin ageing processes. When applied, it feels very comfortable, yet also achieves the immediate effect of smoothing your features and leaving your skin silky and velvety, while it provides the best preparation to receive the benefits of anti-age creams.

“RISPOSTA” THE ANSWERS PROVIDED BY HIGH PHYTOCOSMETICS

A continually changing world, and one that changes us, demands more and more from the modern woman. She has to be active, dynamic, tireless and juggle her time successfully between work and family. She is required to be flexible, efficient and productive, but also know how to preserve her femininity and always look good.

In turn, women demand more as well. Although they know you cannot turn back the clock, they want help keeping their skin fresh, concealing the most obvious signs of fatigue, and protecting their skin against an unkind environment.

Phytocosmetics, or more specifically, high phytocosmetics has solutions for you.

NEEDS AND DESIRES HAVE CHANGED

Closer attention to and greater consideration of the risks of premature skin ageing are directly proportional to an increase in the needs, as well as the desires, of our skin. Basically, a more concentrated and focused effort is required to maintain the skin's balance and protect its natural beauty against the excess production of free radicals, which are the cause of oxidative stress, i.e. collagen and elastin-related alterations which cause skin to age. This naturally leads to the desire to change, to discover and use beauty and face care treatments which offer a visible and verifiable effect...in other words, greater results. For our skin this means more moisturising, more protection and more nourishment, all developed from “more scientific”, “more technological” and more “advanced” products.

RESEARCH WILL CHANGE

This is a major challenge for Phytocosmetic research, where, although there has always been an unwavering desire to stay abreast, it is now necessary to make its logic and solutions even more up-to-date. Laboratories today are committed to identifying new raw materials and enhancing their countless properties with the aid of the most advanced cosmetic science. All with the aim of creating profoundly innovative formulas, which are new in both content and form, i.e. in terms of how appealing they are to use, and, most importantly, their benefits and effectiveness. This prospect has already become reality.

CHANGING THE SOLUTION

L'Erbolario's High phytocosmetics has developed from the top of the most evolved plant-based cosmetics, a targeted and advanced solution to all of your skin's most specific demands, especially in terms of its capacity to concentrate the maximum efficiency of the ingredients in high performing formulas. The High Phytocosmetics Face Range aims for the highest beauty and wrinkle repair results through seven different specific treatments: “Risposta” Day, “Risposta” Night, “Risposta” Perfection Lifting Effect, “Risposta Dettagli” Eye and Lip Contour, “Risposta” Phytofiller Face Firming Cream, “Risposta” Face Firming Precision Phytofiller Serum and “Risposta” Cleansing.

The beauty and harmony of our body are expressed in a thousand different ways and depend on multiple factors (diet, rest, exercise, even happiness...) that all of us should learn to balance intelligently. Our products alone do not intend to promise miracles, but they can effectively help you care for your beauty-related problems. Again, effectiveness depends on consistency: a small amount of time spent every day is not time wasted. Also because respect for others starts with self-respect. If you feel good in your own skin, others will feel better by your side.

THE “SUPERACTIVE” PRODUCTS

FEET AND LEGS

How many actions do our feet and legs perform every day? Countless! Therefore, we inevitably experience sensations of heaviness and fatigue often, even more so during the summer when the heat increases the sensation of swelling and fatigue. The L'Erbolario Laboratories have developed a range of specific formulas to promote the health, tone and natural softness of the skin of feet and legs, which, thanks to the effective action of targeted plant ingredients that nourish, refresh, moisturise and favour restoring the elasticity of the skin in these essential areas of the body, help stave off unpleasant odours, dryness and fatigue.

Deodorant Gel for Feet 026.864

With Red Algae from the Pacific and the essential oils of Mint, Sage and Patchouly

After cleansing your feet thoroughly, apply this gel to experience a wonderful sensation of fresh dryness. The long-lasting effect is guaranteed by Red Algae from the Pacific and by Mint Essential Oil contained in the for mula, as well as from other plant ingredients capable of fighting bacterial growth that causes unpleasant odours and therefore perform a deodorising action that also takes excessive sweating into account.

Smoothing Cream for dry feet 026.872

With red Algae from the Pacific, extracts of wild Radish and black Willow

How can you help restore natural elasticity to the skin of dry feet? This targeted solution, which uses excellent functional substances such as the Extracts of Wild Radish and Black Willow, promotes physiological cell renewal, making your skin appear soft and compact instead of rough. The formula also provides the skin surface with an emollient, nourishing and evening effect. This is the ideal product for rough and calloused areas such as heels and soles of the foot, but also for knees and elbows.

Resting Cream for feet and legs 026.874

With red Algae from the Pacific, extracts of Ivy and Ginkgo biloba

Today, feet and legs can count on this Resting Cream to minimise fatigue and tiredness. In this treatment, the extracts of Ginkgo biloba, Ivy and Aescin-Phytosome provide an anti-oxidant and vessel protective action on surface skin micro-circulation, ensuring a beneficial, light feeling! Red Algae of the Pacific moisturises and softens while natural-derived Menthol provides its refreshing property.

ACCORDO ARANCIO

Vitality has a colour: orange! This beautiful, intense and lively colour has a positive influence on our spirit. Nature offers many fascinating interpretations of this colour, as in the case of the three fruit that L'Erbolario has carefully selected. They are the source of valuable ingredients in the creation of Accordo Arancio: a speciality line for the body's skin and its vital beauty! It starts with Tangerine, the juicy citrus fruit whose origin is said to be Chinese; its name (it's also called mandarin orange) is inspired by the Mandarins who were top Chinese officials and wore clothes in the same colour as this fruit. This beautiful citrus is rich in flavonoids, Vitamin C, Group A and B vitamins, Iron, Magnesium and Folic Acid. These formulations include excellent extracts from its pulp, leaf and peel, along with the highly pure Distilled water from its fruit. Their beneficial properties for skin are remarkable, providing antioxidant, protective, softening and refreshing effects. The second fruit is bitter orange, which is harvested from the Citrus aurantium tree. It is native to India and has been cultivated by the Arabs since the ninth century. The formulations of the Accordo Arancio Line contain it in the form of a great extract derived from its peel, which not only provides freshness but also ensures the tone and elasticity of skin tissue. The third fruit of this vibrant colour is the Chinese Lantern, an edible berry produced by a perennial plant that belongs to the Solanaceae family. This fruit is much appreciated for its concentrated Vitamin C content, along with tannins, mineral salts and saccharides, which make these products especially effective, thanks to their toning and moisturising properties. Three orange fruits... overflowing with wonderful qualities to enhance the beauty of your body. The Accordo Arancio Line still has another appealing and original characteristic. A scent that amazes with its invigorating, positive fragrant note that is intense and luminous, in perfect harmony with the masculine and feminine personality.

BOUQUET D'ARGENTO - SILVER BOUQUET

Silver shines with evocative, infinite, iridescent, ever-changing hues, creating an irresistible charm. And like a mirror, it captures and reflects the image of the beholder, highlighting it and almost magically revealing their personality. The L'Erborario phytocosmetic laboratories have chosen and picked countless refined nuances of silvery plant leaves. They have then obtained the precious extracts contained in the formulas of the Silver Bouquet Perfumed Line, recipes that enhance the radiance of the skin, and enclose an extra treasure: an original, elegant perfume.

These compose an original bouquet enriched by golden Acacia Honey: its efficacy, combined with that of the flower extracts, create a Perfumed Line with a sublime scent and an antioxidant and protective action on the skin.

CAMELIA - CAMELLIA

The Camellia. This is the flower which, more than any other, symbolises and evokes amorous feelings. In the East, the Camellia represents a perfect and long-lasting union, as well eternal devotion for lovers! According to other traditions, it is a flower that brings good luck, even when offered to a man. Now it is becoming the flower of choice for many women: in the "garden" of excellent phytocosmetic products from L'Erbolario, Camellia is blossoming; the product line dedicated to the beauty of body skin. First of all, the fragrance is a delicate masterpiece. The floral imprint is enriched with a slightly spicy tone and a passionate and intense accent, which stirs memories of yesteryear but also the image of an elegantly contemporary style. Each formulation is the combination of the best selected ingredients of plant origin, including extracts from two beautiful Camellias: one from the Camellia sinensis leaf and the other from the Camellia japonica flower, with double the excellent antioxidant and toning effect on skin tissue. Like the enduring love that the Camellia symbolises, every formulation in this line has the constant and enduring ability to take loving care of the epidermis of the whole body, making you feel more protected, hydrated and supple and proud to exhibit the same silky quality that the petals of this flower possess.

GIRASOLE - SUNFLOWER

The Sunflower is the king of summer: its simple beauty and vibrant colours add a carefree, joyful splash to the landscape; as it stretches towards the sky and sun, it mirrors our longing to be out in the open during the warmer months.

L'Erbolario was inspired to create a perfumed homage to the Sunflower, a luminous fragrance that's as light as a summer breeze, and body products formulated with the extract and distilled water created by our own Laboratories.

Perfume

This light-filled fragrance is inspired by the Sunflower, the most summery of all flowers.

It opens with vibrant hints of citrus, interwoven with clear water nuances, followed by a delicate floral heart that opens up harmoniously to reveal sweet base notes.

Notes of:

Bergamot, Lemon,

Water Note, Sunflower Petals,

Orange Blossom, Ginger,

Vanilla, Honey

Softening Shower Gel

[036.098] [036.099]

with extract of Sunflower petals

Notes of citrus and water, plus floral and vanilla nuances make up the perfumed symphony of this Shower Gel, designed to gently cleanse and refresh the skin.

Place of honour at the heart of the delicate formula goes to three toning, refreshing ingredients created in our Laboratories: extract and distilled water of Sunflower petals and extract of Coconut blossom Sugar.

Fluid

[026.098] [026.099]

Body Cream Summer freshness

with extract of Sunflower petals

The luminous, graceful fragrance of this creamy fluid is perfect for summer.

Its light, fresh texture ensures the skin quickly absorbs the product with a delightful massage.

Sunflower and Coconut, the ultimate symbols of summer, provide the ingredients that make the formula so very special.

We produce our own toning extract and refreshing distilled water from Sunflower petals, while the plant's seeds provide us with a superb organic oil that's both softening and nourishing.

The fruit of the Coconut gives us organic, fair-trade virgin oil with firming and nourishing properties, while blossom sugar is the raw material used by our Laboratories to produce a rich moisturizing extract.

Iridescent, fresh and flowery, the fragrance of the Sweet Poppy is replicated in the products of this range, all featuring formulas based on the precious active ingredients obtained from the poppies of light and wind.

Perfume [066.343] [066.430]

Two spirits, two moods come together in this iridescent and sweet eau de parfum. The rural and care-free nature of the common poppy, the field poppy, is recreated on the wave of notes of Poppy and Prunella Petals, coloured with fresh, flowery, feminine and light nuances. A dreamier and more hypnotic, denser and more mysterious touch is added by Papaver orientale with its fragrance that directs your thoughts, taking on the compelling and enveloping notes of the Davana of the Indies and the Water Jasmine.

A second fluid extract, obtained from Papaver somniferum seeds will also provide a highly appreciable moisturising, softening and toning activity. Thoroughly cleansed, your skin will come out velvety soft, toned and imbued with an appealing flowery and fresh fragrant note every time you wash.

substances obtained from scarlet and sweet poppies. Specifically, Poppy Oil, rich in fatty acids, leaves skin firm and supple; the oily extract of Poppy petals releases soothing and restorative properties; the fluid extracts of Poppy seeds and petals, lastly, provide an anti-oxidant and protective effect against the risk of premature skin ageing and the first, unsightly signs of sagging.

The extracts that L'Erbolario Research has obtained from these small flowers and then captured in the recipes of the Regina dei Prati line are greatly beneficial to the beauty of your skin. Organic Meadowsweet extract offers anti-oxidant effects, organic Daisy extract provides a toning action while organic Chamomile extract is emol-

It is worth responding with kindness and patience, nourishing it, caressing it and providing the care it deserves. The products that L’Erbolario recommends for you have been created so that your hair can do for you what healthy and shiny foliage does for a fine tree.

FOLTA CHIOMA

When your hair appears brittle and weak it is important to be able to count on an adjuvant cosmetic treatment to prevent hair loss, such as Folta Chioma, the line developed at L'Erborario PhytoCosmetic Laboratories. You need to start off with the Shampoo, as it ensures an effective cleansing action that removes impurities and excessive sebum from the scalp, restoring vitality to your hair. The second step is using a Lotion, contained in vials, which offers an intensive treatment of active substances that help strengthen your hair's structure and fibre. These two products, when used together, offer more satisfying results and are formulated in two versions, for Him and for Her, offering targeted solutions for the differing demands of male and female hair.

The anti-oxidant extract of Green Coffee beans improves the strength of the hair fibre, while the Stimucap® complex staves off the risk of temporary hair thinning, in men. Lastly, three Oligo-elements guarantee protection and an anti-stress effect.

chemical and environmental elements, it repairs each individual shaft, re-compacting the external scales and split ends, and it instantly enhances your hair, increasing shine, strength, volume and making it easy to comb.

In fact, thanks to the high percentage of Millet Extract and Panthenol (a B-group Pro-vitamin), by simply spraying your hair, you are providing it with beneficial nourishing and shine-enhancing elements.

WAVY & CURLY

Wavy and curly hair can be unruly and prone to frizz, as well as dry and brittle, so managing it can be quite a challenge. The L'Erborario Laboratories have developed a range of cosmetics specifically designed to meet all their needs: cleansing, treatment, definition and styling. A truly innovative, natural-derived active ingredient was selected for these special formulas: Aquafaba, recovered from the food industry and enhanced for cosmetic use, known for its exceptional shaping, conditioning, taming, anti-humidity and shine-enhancing properties.

Anti-frizz Shine-enhancing Shampoo

with reclaimed Aquafaba

A Shampoo that gently cleanses while helping to define and hold curls in place. In addition to a gentle cleansing base derived from Argan oil, it contains Aquafaba, which has shaping, conditioning, anti-frizz and shine-enhancing properties.

Anti-frizz - Taming Conditioning Mask

with reclaimed Aquafaba

This creamy Conditioner for wavy and curly hair is ideal because it combines the exceptional detangling and shaping properties of Aquafaba with a blend of rich, natural ingredients such as Shea butter and Argan oil that leave hair soft and full of body. In addition to using it as a Conditioner after shampooing, we also recommend that you use it as a Mask if your hair is particularly dry and brittle.

Curl Shaping Cream Ultra definition

with reclaimed Aquafaba

When your hair is all washed and detangled, it's time to start styling. Just remember, do this when your hair is still wet. For this step, which is essential to shape waves and curls and achieve the desired effect, we have specially formulated a Cream containing Aquafaba, which has shaping and anti-frizz properties, and organic Chestnut extract, which repairs the hair and protects it from heat. All you need to do is apply a small amount of the product from the roots to the ends, then style your hair as you like and dry it.

Curl Reviving Serum – Silkening Anti-frizz Effect

with Chickpea extract

To enhance your waves and curls and better control frizz, this revitalising and silkening treatment with Chickpea extract and Coconut, Jojoba, Argan and Limnanthes oils leaves your hair soft without weighing it down. On dry hair, apply a few drops of the Serum to the ends to revive your curls and leave them silky soft. If your hair is very dry, you can apply the Serum to wet hair after you have used the Cream to give it extra softness.

ORTICA DIOICA - NETTLE

The thickening and conditioning effect of Nettle makes these products precious allies for tired and brittle hair, also providing a good adjuvant for hair loss prevention.

Nettle Shampoo 031.036

Strengthens and protects dry and fragile hair

A specific formula for dry and fine hair, weakened by colouring, bleaching and perms, or stressed by weather conditions.

Thanks to the special proteins which it deposits on the surface of each hair fibre, it washes delicately, restores the protective sheath of the hair and neutralises electrostatic charges. It strengthens the ends, providing your hair with gloss, volume and hold, leaving it easy to comb.

Nettle Lotion 032.039

Sanitising and Body-Boosting for Hair

Since hair goes through natural cycles, it is perfectly normal for dozens of hairs to fall out every day, as they will be promptly replaced. However, aggressive treatments, environmental factors, dandruff and seborrhoea may upset, even to a serious extent, these rhythms and jeopardise the appearance of your hair. Accordingly, it may be necessary to use a supplementary product.

Strictly alcohol-free, Nettle lotion helps add body and shine to your hair, and hold your hairstyle in place.

By rubbing it on daily and thoroughly, its sanitising-cosmetic action, which exploits the properties of Nettle Extract and Aromatic Rosemary Water, makes it a valid adjuvant in hair loss prevention.

RISTRUTTURA

To ensure radiant hair and avoid excessively wearing down its strength due to the stress of every day life, your hair will require on-going and targeted care.

The Ristruttura line was developed to provide a suitable solution to the needs of even the most stressed, dull and worn out hair, with products offering well-balanced formulas bursting with super-effective and precious active functional substances.

Restructuring Shampoo for Treated Hair 031.954

With Cotton oligosaccharides and extract of Linden buds

Forced to suffer the often draining process of changing hair colour, treated hair is commonly more fragile and sensitive. In fact, dyeing, perming and bleaching hair directly affects its porosity, increasingly exposing it to greater risk of damage. Specifically for mulatto to fight the damaging effects of chemical agents, this shampoo with its very appealing gel consistency contains exceptional amounts of highly effective active ingredients, which offer major moisturising action as well as nourishment and plenty of protection.

Restructuring Cream for Fragile and Brittle Hair 032.953

With oil and extract of Flax

A good after-shampoo treatment, which is recommended for all hair types, is crucial in the case of weak, fragile, colour or bleach-damaged hair. Highly nourishing and replenishing, this cream can be used in place of conditioner and offers the perfect finishing touch to the restructuring program started with specific shampoos. The four highly effective active ingredients that distinguish the formula penetrate the hair cuticle, "re-storing" the most damaged areas and strengthening the shaft. Your hair receives the nourishment and moisture it needs, reducing the risk of split ends... leaving it beautiful and glossy, strong and healthy.

HAIR COLOUR

Also when it comes to hair colour, we favour natural, harmonious shades that reflect nature's authentic colours. We love the rich tones of Henna, the golden highlights of Chamomile treatments and the deep brown left by Tea leaves – artificial-looking colour simply isn't our style. For women juggling ever more demands, we know how much it means to be able to lift their spirits – reviving a shade that suddenly looks a little flat, or gently blending away grey. All in a way that's simple, quick and effective. That's why we spent so long developing a product that delivers genuine results, is as gentle as possible, and leaves hair with beautifully luminous highlights.

Our formulas are free from ammonia and oxidising agents, yet enriched with carefully selected extracts of Chamomile, Henna, Chestnut and Bilberry, together with nourishing and conditioning active ingredients.

This is how they were developed
THE L'ERBOLARIO

- As the product will not lighten your natural hair colour, the gel should be chosen in the shade closest to your base colour, in order to achieve satisfactory results;

- Thanks to the total absence of hydrogen peroxide, it can be used to gently enhance the natural highlights of untinted hair, as well as those of hair colored with shades close to the base color.

- L'Erbolario colours are available in a range of shades which will help you discretely conceal grey hair. Naturally, the more grey hairs you have, the more gel you need to use.

The product is already ready for use, and one package is enough for two applications on medium-length hair.

It is easy to use: simply leave it on for approximately 30/45 minutes on dry hair and then wash it off using a rich and delicate shampoo such as Macassar Oil.

Rinsing, however, must be thorough and should be continued until the water runs clear, in order to remove all traces of the gel.

PROTECTING AND ENHANCING:
JUST A FEW MORE HELPFUL TIPS.

- In warm weather let your hair air dry. However, if you have little time and inclination, use the hair-dryer, holding it at 25 cm from your head and setting it on medium heat.
- Only use brushes with natural bristles, without brushing more than 50 strokes per day.
- Do not wear your hair up in a pony tail, bun, pinned up or held up with hair combs, as this is damaging.

- Strictly avoid "back-comb-ing".
- In the winter, always remember to use hair conditioner to protect your hair from smog, fog, rain, pollution.
- Adjust your diet, because your hair needs to be healthy in order to be beautiful. Eat protein-rich food (very fresh eggs, low-fat cheese, yoghurt, lentils and beans),

B group vitamins (brewer's yeast, whole grains), mineral salts and vitamins (fresh vegetables, honey). Ask your herbalist for a millet recipe and learn to eat this food which is invaluable for beautiful hair. Especially if you have oily hair, drastically reduce your intake of fats, sugars and carbohydrates: replace them with uncooked olive oil, honey and whole grains.

The Men's Lines

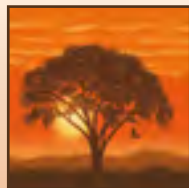

It is extremely important for everybody to start the day off on the right foot: leaving the house with peace of mind, feeling good in your own skin and happy with the world after a good breakfast, a bit of music, and also after dedicating some special care to ourselves in the bathroom. But it doesn't stop there. To avoid any man who has intelligently learned to grant himself a few extra minutes to take care of his appearance from having to raid the women's universe, these lines include actual cosmetics, both essential and practical, developed for men.

Its simple appearance belies its virtues, and yet Vetiver reveals its strong, decisive character even at first encounter.

And if it is true that smell is the most spiritual of our senses, then Vetiver, with its decisive, lively character, is the real embodiment of spiritual and emotional strength.

This is why we at L'Erbolario chose it as the main ingredient for our cosmetic line. First, we worked on the roots to obtain an extract with cleansing and toning properties; then, we subjected the residue to a special process of steam distillation, to create a fragrant toning water.

Perfume [066.123] [066.124]

Beneath the lively, woody notes of this fragrance lies the real power of Vetiver, a hardy plant with vigorous roots. Its unique scent is intermixed with tangy notes of citrus fruit and Ginger and the deep, warm tones of Musk.

Yellow Mandarin, Bitter
Grapefruit, Ginger, Rosewood,
Vetiver, White Musk

Sun and Open Air

To make you tan better, sooner, and in complete comfort: these are the goals that L'Erbolario pursues for you.

We offer you specific products that have been specially formulated to promote your tan and make it last as long as possible, to moisturise and protect your skin, and lastly, to restore it after hours and hours of intense outdoor activity. This will keep your skin smooth and elastic, protected against premature ageing and the formation of small wrinkles, making it easier for you to get the most from the sun, "creating" and then maintaining that wonderful natural protection called a suntan.

THE SUN CARE PRODUCTS

TIPS FOR A PERFECT SUNTAN

The sun is one of our best friends for our beauty, our health and our figure. Its energy is exhilarating and stimulating. However, you need to know how to enjoy it intelligently, to avoid the little inconveniences that we are all familiar with as well as major disasters such as premature ageing of the skin, with one of the major causes being foolish exposure to the sun without suitable protection. The worry caused over recent years by the holes in the ozone layer surrounding the earth should have been enough to convince everyone to behave more carefully and assess their own photo-type, the season, the latitude of their location and the opportunity of using appropriate protection before exposing their skin to the warmth and light of the Sun god!

Therefore, in order to make the most of the sun, with neither too much nor too little, we must count on our own good sense and sun care products. Before discussing our sun products, below we have listed the rules of an ideal "code of conduct" for the sun.

- 1) Decide to categorically avoid sunburning at all costs.
- 2) Do not spend too much time in the sun during the first two or three days, and then gradually increase the amount of time: this progression will allow you to achieve the perfect suntan quickly and without running any unnecessary risks.
- 3) Choose appropriate protection based on your photo-type (skin hair eyes), the climate, the season and the latitude. When in doubt, opt for a higher SPF. Check the UV index for the day by consulting the weather forecast in daily newspapers: the higher the index, the more important protection becomes.
- 4) Remember that it is never a good idea to spend too much time lying in the sun and do not underestimate the risks of reverberation. Accordingly, use a good sun product even if you are sitting under a sun umbrella or the sky is slightly overcast.
- 5) Do not use alcohol-based perfume or eau de toilette before exposure to the sun and, if you are taking any medicines (sulphamides, antibiotics, tranquilisers), consult your doctor, to avoid the risk of increased skin sensitivity or allergic reactions.

- 6) Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m., the sun's rays are more likely to irritate the skin than to tan it, so avoid sitting in the sun during this time.
- 7) Reapply your sun product around once an hour and always after a swim, shower, water-skiing, etc.
- 8) Remember that sun products are not applied like other beauty products: particularly during the first few days, it is better if they form a generous film on your skin. Experts suggest applying 35 g of product each time, which is around six teaspoons of cream. They also remind us that it is not helpful, and possibly damaging, to rub your sun cream in too much.
- 9) Do not forget that, just like you skin, your hair also needs to be suitably protected.
- 10) Immediately after a swim and always at the end of the day, take a shower in fresh water to remove all traces of salt and chlorine from your hair and skin.
- 11) All these precautions are especially important for children, who benefit greatly from the sun, but require particular care at the same time. Always remember to wear a hat and sunglasses when you are in the sun. Young children, according to dermatologists, should actually be protected with a cotton t-shirt and always wear a high SPF product on any exposed areas. Very young children, especially newborns, must never be directly exposed to the sun.

SUN PROTECTION FACTOR

The L'Erbolario sun care products have been formulated by our Research and Development Laboratory to successfully dose UVA and UVB filters and block out harmful rays. These products therefore allow you to develop a good tan, while providing excellent protection.

We believe it is our duty to clarify the method used to define the SPF (Sun Protection Factor). Faithful as always to the strictest parameters of reliability and professionalism in its relationship with its customers, L'Erbolario promptly adopted the recommendations set forth by the European Commission regulating sun protection indicators. According to these recommendations, solely and exclusively products capable of providing protection against UVB and UVA rays above 6 are considered to be sun care products, therefore L'Erbolario amended the formulas of all its sun products that had an SPF below 6. The International Sun Protection Factor Method is the only method recognised by the European Commission as the one to determine protection indexes, and has invited all manufacturers to comply with a clear and schematic classification. On the basis of this classification, all sun care products must now be divided into 4 different categories, each categorised by a higher or lower protection capacity, according to the following table:

Categories	SPF Index
Low Protection	6
	10
	15
Medium Protection	20
	25
	30
High Protection	50
	50+
Very High Protection	50+

All L'Erbolario sun care products (with the exception of the products which do not contain filters and are therefore considered simple skin moisturising and nourishing products to be used during exposure to the sun) display a number from this classification between 6 and 50+, indicating the product's ability to block or extinguish, to use the highly effective term used by experts, UVB and UVA rays. Lastly, the (UVA) symbol on the packages and bottles of all our sun care products indicates that the products comply with the requirements set forth by the European Commission, in other words, they guarantee a UVA ray screening action of 1/3 of the total sun protection factor. For example, a sun protection factor of 30 will guarantee a UVA ray screening action equal to or greater than 10).

TARGETED PRODUCTS TO CAPTURE THE SUN
L'Erbolario offers products dedicated to different types of skin, or to different moments of exposure. Products that:

- are enriched with natural-derived, moisturising, nourishing and softening substances;
- are absolutely appealing and comfortable to apply;
- guarantee maximum protection;
- help protect the skin from UV rays that cause premature skin ageing.

your face for the sun's rays; a quick application after sunbathing, on the other hand, will help restore your skin's freshness and moisture as rapidly as possible. An incredible combination of antioxidant and protective active ingredients which, in fact, works to limit the production of free radicals as much as possible, the culprits of premature skin ageing, while the tan enhancing lipo-amino acid serves to quickly achieve the desirable tan.

Home Products

A must in the L'Erbolario catalogue are the fresh, flowery or balsamic notes intended to make the air in your home more pleasant, and which we want you to imagine, in every season, as opening onto a fragrant garden with sweet fields and dark woods in the background.

Therefore, to help you banish smoke, unpleasant kitchen odours and the slightly musty odour that city heating systems often develop, we offer a small collection of scents inspired by flowers, woods, and herbs.

Every time it will be like throwing open your windows onto a rose bed, a lilac bush, a honeysuckle hedge or the balsamic air of a thick fir forest.

For your gifts

*L'*Erbolario is proud of the quality of its products and its commitment to continuously improving them always finding new applications for nature's hidden treasures, this is what we focus most of our energy on.

Nonetheless, we also believe that an elegant “appearance” has its value, therefore we have always taken care of the design of our packaging. We believe that the results are very appealing, and often turn into fragrant gifts. In order to package them in the best possible way, bags, boxes of all sizes big and small are available, piquing interest even before they are opened.

WHY CHOOSE A GIFT FROM L'ERBOLARIO?

Mainly because creams, aromatic water, perfumes are created from the successful alliance between herbalist wisdom, established over the centuries, and the scientific accuracy of modern cosmetology. You can be sure of offering well-being and beauty, and promising at least a shred of happiness!

With more than 500 different products, there are infinite possibilities of choice and combination.

It is easy to satisfy anyone's tastes and stay within your budget.

You can amuse yourselves by imagining what gift would be most appreciated by an athletic and dynamic partner, a mum who does not hide her fear of ageing, a daughter dealing with the minor beauty-related drama of adolescence, a vain friend a sophisticated lady who is also a proud home-maker, a granny who appreciates the fragrances of past, happier years ...

Do you need or want to make a token gift? You can start with a talc, an extract, a pot-pourri. Just a customised ribbon would be suitable, however, you can also wrap it in an elegant box and turn it into a sophisticated gift.

Do you wish to make a distinctly more substantial gift? There is a huge selection to choose from, and you will need to use your imagination to mix and match the products. You can choose by category (face, body, home ...); or by fragrance (Iris, Black Juniper, Sweet Poppy, Frangipani...); or simply by choosing and juxtaposing the products you like most: the patchwork effect is nonetheless charming.

The lines are well-assorted and it is possible to get into the game by matching, for example, a single fragrance: soaps, bath foams, scented oils, talc, eau de parfum, extract, scented sachets (for drawers, wardrobes, cars), room scenters etc.

You will be able to choose the most suitable package based on the recipient of the gift, on how the products are grouped together. A bed of everlasting, roses or lavender will create a background and enhance the colours and patterns of the products.

Give beauty, give happiness!
